Point Potrero Ideal Site For Academy

Naval Base and Federal Building Coming Along, Also

H. W. Wernse was in Richmond today and bumped into a Terminal newspaper representative, who admires the Secretary's superior boosting qualities, his broad vision and optimism.

"What do I think of the naval academy and federal building plants for Richmond and our chances of securing them? Why, we've almost got them now."

"Point Potrero is the ideal site for the academy, and Mr. Nicholl will secure favorable action in Washington, in my opinion. The waterfronts of Richmond and Albany embody all the ideal requirements for the naval base and the academy found nowhere on our coast line.

"Do I think the business center will stroll around like Richmond's pioneer postoffice and the numerous city halls of recent years?"

"No, indeed. Richmond's business center will always remain between 23d and the Point, Cutting boulevard serving as the connecting link to weld the city into one large, busy center with Macdonald and Cutting as the two main arteries of traffic."

Mr. Wernse is secretary of the Richmond Industrial Commission and is ever on the alert for new enterprises to increase the demand for labor and make Richmond the greatest payroll city on the Pacific slope.

POLITICAL COMMENT

A Little "Review" in Advance

(By The Terminal's "Air Man.")

If you are about to fish for an office today the question is asked: "Of what lodge is the candidate a member?"

In event that the next President of the United States is a progressive, Hon. W. R. Sharkey may receive the appointment as consul to Amoy, China.

Chief Charles Walker will probably remain chief as long as he wants it. It is a dangerous policy to allow politics to creep into the police department.

All officials and politicians are becoming more and more Christian. Rev. F. Pfeiffer of Richmond is mentioned for assemblyman. All churches may rally to his support.

In twenty-five years there will be no city prisons, county jails, no penitentiaries and criminal lawyers will be a thing of the past. Human salvage through probation will leave none but civil cases to be tried said a prominent Christian at the Portola Cafe.

Some large capitalists are looking toward starting a large banking concern in Richmond and some big movements are working very quietly toward this enterprise the past three days. A choice property between Third and Sixth streets is the probable location.

Wilbur Pierce, who is friendly to the present administration of Governor Johnson, may be induced to enter the contest for member of the assembly from this county. Mr. Pierce is a close friend of District Attorney Johnson, and was assistant district attorney, until his resignation from that office when Attorney Carlson, relative of District Attorney Johnson was appointed Mr. Pierce's successor at Richmond.

It is said the "frameup" has been tipped off.

And that the meal ticket will be perforated by hobnails.

Albany's $3500 steam roller will do a little "campaigning" from now on until election day, April 10.

"Nick" says you never can tell who one is "drilling" with in politics or in the lodge room. ???

The "ins" and the "outs" are thoroughly organized, and even Frank Roberts, who has been on the board of trustees since the first meetings in Chris Miller's barn at the county line, says: "I can see a dark ominous cloud appearing on the Northbrae and Thousand Oaks hillsides, with 400 votes, not like the 'old bunch.' I don't know what they are going to do to us. We will find out April 10."

Mrs. Freda Brown, wife of the popular electrician, Jack Brown, is running strong for city treasurer, a position sought for by five aspirants, two ladies and three gents. Some who are closely scrutinizing the hands on the political clock predict a "tight race" between Judge John H. Paul and Mrs. Brown. Either candidate would make a good treasurer, and it is a "toss up" with many about marking their X.

Portola Restaurant Improved.

The Portola restaurant, J. Hoar, manager, has been repainted and improved inside and out. The part for ladies and families is an improvement over the former box system, giving the spacious dining halls a neat and attractive appearance. Mr. Hoar is one of the popular caterers of Richmond.

Pay-Up Week is the city's.

S. F. BAY IS NAVY CENTER; BENSON

Rear-Admiral Urges Necessity For Construction of a Big Shipyard at This Port

Washington.—Rear Admiral Benson, chief of the Bureau of Operations, told the House Naval Committee March 17 that San Francisco bay should have a navy yard "adequate to build as many battle-ships as might be necessary for the Pacific Coast." He said a first-class plant there would be vastly more valuable than one at Puget Sound, and that he did not favor the $2,000,000 appropriation passed by the Senate for improvements of the Puget Sound yard.

San Francisco, the Admiral argued, was more central than Puget Sound and had a larger body of water and a better fortified bay entrance. Puget Sound, he added, was "not only very near foreign territory, but in a position where it is easily approached by nations across the Pacific."

Admiral Benson strongly favored Guantanamo as a primary naval base in the Caribbean.

"I believe from the lessons of the European war," he said, "that there should be somewhere south of Cape Hatteras yards and docks where our ships could go. The question of the military force necessary for land defense of Guantanamo, of course, has been considered, but we hope the fleet would defend it."

The Panama Canal, the Admiral said, should be strongly fortified and a large military force should be kept there.

"We should keep the canal open at all hazards," he declared. "If we had a fight on the northeastern portion of the Caribbean sea and we were defeated by the enemy and were cut off from Guantanamo, we might have to take our ships under protection of the guns of the canal at the entrance and take them from the canal to the Pacific."

Admiral Benson also said he favored a certain number of battle cruisers, but did not favor diverting the Navy's energies radically from battleships to battle-cruisers. He advised against an unusual increase in fleet submarines, saying three of the 800-ton type would be sufficient.

FABULOUS ORE FOUND IN MINES OF OREGON

Baker, Ore.—A rich gold strike has just been made on Canyon mountain by Denver Leedy and Lynn George, who have been working on a claim belonging to J. A. Muldrick, according to word brought here. Average samples of the ore taken to Canyon City assayed from $20 to $40 a pound. The mine had been yielding only average returns until last week.

El Paso.—The Mexican consulate received a telegram here from General Calles, military governor of Sonora, saying that a Villista spy, R. Panobios, had been arrested at Dos Cabezas. It is alleged that this man was in Columbus on the night of the raid. When questioned, he said that Villa had fled after the raid to Carrizillo, where he murdered several cowboys and seized a number of horses. He then started for Galeana by way of Puerto Choco.

Nevada City.—This town was saved from a serious fire in the business section early last Friday morning by the use of one of its water towers. These towers, which are more than 100 feet in height, are equipped with monitors, which command the entire business section. The fire started in a group of wooden buildings and was assuming large proportions, but was squelched by the monitor in less than five minutes.

El Paso.—It is estimated here that the cost of the Villa pursuit at present is upward of $40,000 per day.

IRISH-AMERICANS RENEW FEALTY TO U. S. ON ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Ireland Congratulated for Success in Resisting Conscription Measures of the British

San Francisco.—Seven thousand Irish-Americans attending the St. Patrick's day literary exercises and entertainment in the Exposition Auditorium March 17 renewed their pledges of allegiance to the United States and congratulated the Irish race and the Irish army for "their success in resisting the conscription measure sought to be imposed on them by England."

The renewed pledges and congratulations were part of a resolution adopted by the St. Patrick's day convention, and which was unanimously approved by the great gathering.

Aside from the resolution, the remainder of the program was devoted to fitting tribute to the memory of Erin's patron saint, to the singing of Irish melodies and the dancing of Irish jigs, reels and hornpipes. The dancing feature was particularly pleasing in the participation of hundreds of children in Irish costumes, whose tiny feet twinkled to the tunes of the Celtic piper and fiddler.

The oration of the day was delivered by Rev. T. M. Barrett, who, in the course of a powerful address, said:

"Ireland's career has been a crusade and her sword still maintains the chivalry of the Middle Ages. It has never known dishonor, for only the sacred words, 'For God and Erin,' can draw it from its scabbard."

"And if those magic words rang out in Erin today, 200,000 swords and rifles borne by men as brave as those who conquered at Clontarf would respond to that sacred battle cry."

The King paid high tribute to the Irish regiment, which was created by Queen Victoria to commemorate the heroism of the Irish regiments in the South African War.

Loyal Sons of Erin Busy From Opening Parade in Morning to the Grand Ball at Night

"When our race emerged from the furnace of persecution, God revealed the sublime vocation he had reserved to the children of the martyrs. Providence threw open the gates of the Golden West and said: 'Go forth, children of Ireland. Follow the track of the setting sun. Come into a land of golden plenty, rich in hope. Bring to the land of the great Washington the religion of Charlemagne and St. Louis, of Isabella and Columbus.'"

"The revolutionary army that smote to earth the Union Jack and flung to the heavens the Stars and Stripes, held many a valorous Irish soldier exiled from his home land."

"Therefore, when, in the last century, the main exodus of the Celt occurred, America opened her arms and took them to her mighty heart. For this we do her homage today. We salute her glorious flag, symbol of liberty, emblem of the Empire Republic of the World."

Andrew J. Gallagher, chairman of the day, introduced Mayor Rolph as the first speaker. The Mayor extended the greetings of San Francisco.

The St. Patrick's day celebration opened with a parade and pageant. More than 100 city and state Gaiety societies participated in the parade, as did the brightly costumed children of many parochial schools.

Following the literary program of the afternoon a grand ball at the Exposition Auditorium brought the celebration to a close. Dancing was preceded by a concert, stereopticon views of Ireland and selected numbers by the Pacific Songbund.

OFFICIAL STATEMENTS FROM THE EUROPEAN WAR ZONE

GERMAN.

Berlin.—The official statement March 18 says:

"Six British mine explosions south of Loos were unsuccessful."

"In various sectors in the Champagne and between the Meuse and the Moselle there have been sustained artillery duels."

"In the Meuse district the enemy pushed repeatedly a fresh division against the German positions on Dead Man's Height. This division is the twenty-seventh used since the beginning of the engagements on this comparatively small section of front. The first attack was without artillery preparation, in the nature of a surprise. A few companies succeeded in reaching our lines, where the few unwounded men remaining were taken. The second attack was stopped by our curtain of fire."

TURKISH.

Berlin.—The Turkish official statement from Constantinople, received here March 18, says:

"The enemy after his defeat near Fohab on March 8th, while preparing for a general retreat, attempted to attack by surprise the Turkish right wing, but under the pressure of the center was forced to desist from the plan and begin a general retreat."

"On March 10th-11th Turkish troops vigorously pursued the enemy and crossed several lines previously fortified by him. On March 10th Turkish vanguards reached Zenzir Heights, which was fortified. The enemy, considering the Turkish forces insignificant, attacked, but Turkish reinforcements counter attacked, defeated the British and took 180 prisoners, among whom were five officers, and also captured one machine gun, arms and ammunition."

AUSTRIAN.

Berlin.—The official report March 17 from Austrian headquarters says:

"On the Strips front successful encounters were fought with patrols. West of Tarnopol, Austro-Hungarian troops entered advanced Russian position and captured an ensign, sixty-seven soldiers, one machine gun and four mine throwers."

"On the Isonzo front the Italians have ceased their useless attacks. During their latest offensive all positions of the Austro-Hungarian forces were held firmly by them."

FRENCH.

Paris.—The official statement March 18 says: "To the north of the Aisne a German attack directed against one of our small posts to the southeast of the Bois des Buttes was repulsed after fighting with grenades. Spirited actions by our artillery in the region of Ville-aux-Bois and on the Craonne plateau have taken place."

"In the Argonne our batteries continue to shell the German lines of communication behind the front."

"In the region to the north of Verdun no infantry actions took place during the day. The bombardment is intermittent to the west of the Meuse and in the Woivre. It is more intense on the right bank of the Meuse."

"In the region of Douaumont and Damour our artillery has countered vigorously the fire of the German batteries and destroyed important depots of ammunition at Champneuville."

"There have been no events on the remainder of the front except the customary cannonades."

The Belgian communication says: "The usual reciprocal bombardments have been in progress."

ITALIAN.

Rome.—The official statement issued March 17 says:

"A detachment of enemy infantry, supported by artillery, Wednesday night attempted to attack our positions southeast of Rovereto and in the Sugana valley, but was repulsed by our riflemen and gun fire."

"In the Tofano zone, on the Boite, under unfavorable atmospheric conditions, we occupied the position of Forcella di Fonana Nera, between the first and second summits of the ridge, at an altitude of 2588 meters. The enemy attempted to execute an enveloping movement, but was immediately repulsed."

"In the Fella valley the artillery of the enemy in the vicinity of Fort Hensel was reduced to silence by the effective fire of our guns."

Both artilleries were intensely active all along the entire Isonzo front throughout yesterday, while our artillery carried out efficacious hand-grenade attacks against the enemy's lines."

"One of our detachments entered an enemy trench to the east of Peteano and Monte San Michele by surprise and captured a number of rifles and some ammunition and material."

Berlin.—"Reports have been received here from Athens that British warships have bombarded the open town of Vurila, near Smyrna, of which the inhabitants are nearly all Greeks," says an Overseas News Agency item given out March 17.

"The town, the report states, was almost entirely destroyed. A large number of Greeks, mostly women and children, were killed. A part of the Greek population was taken to Mitylene."

NEWS FROM THE MEXICAN BORDER AND MOVEMENTS OF U. S. TROOPS

DOUGLAS, Ariz.—The consignment of rifle ammunition for General P. Elias Calles' army, consisting of 300,000 rounds of cartridges, was taken across the border here March 17 on the motor trucks.

Mexican Consul Leleiver said it will be sent to the Carranza detachments in Eastern Sonora. The permit allows 700,000 rounds to cross to Agua Prieta.

Nogales, Ariz.—News of the crossing of United States troops into Mexico was received quietly by the Mexican people of Guaymas, Hermosillo, Magdalena and other towns along the west coast on the line of the Southern Pacific Railway of Mexico, according to Americans who reached Nogales. George J. Richardson, manager of the Mexican National Trading Company of San Francisco, said that the news was taken calmly by both newspapers and population of Guaymas.

Mexico City.—Mexican laborers in all parts of the United States have been called upon to return to their native country in a decree issued by Gustavo Espinosa Morales, Governor of Coahuila and former private secretary of General Carranza. The Governor says the time has come for all Mexicans to leave the northern republic and aid in the patriotic work of the reconstruction of their country. Any number of Mexicans, the decree says, can be taken care of, and good wages and safe living conditions are assured them.

El Paso.—Andreas Garcia, Carranza counsel here, announced that he was being bombarded with threats of death and insults sent through the mails by followers of Felix Diaz. He said that similar communications were being sent to General Gavira in Juarez. One such communication was written on a copy of an American newspaper which had large headlines announcing that Carranza had agreed to permit American troops to cross the border. Over this was written: "You are a traitor to the national honor of Mexico and will meet the fate of such."

Presidio, Texas.—A troop of the Fourteenth Cavalry, under command of Lieutenant Stevenson, arrived here March 17. Troops C and D of the Thirteenth Cavalry departed for Marfa, thence to go to Columbus.

New Orleans.—The battleship Kentucky, which started for Vera Cruz early March 17, put back to the dock shortly afterward and tied up to a wharf here.

Columbus, N. M.—Reliable reports here indicate that some of the large ranching and cattle interests on the Mexican side of the border here have offered a reward of $50,000 for Villa, dead or alive.

Columbus, N. M.—It has been learned that the shot which killed Colonel Lopez, Villa's first chief during the raid, was fired by an American trooper at 1200 yards. Lopez fell at the first shot. Much of the other shooting during that fight was done at distances of 600 and 800 yards, remarkably good marksmanship, according to the American officers.

NEVER IN DARKNESS

Peculiar Quality of the Eyes of a Cat.

Scientists, After Considerable Investigation, Appear to Have Discovered Why Household Pet Can See in the Dark.

Not satisfied with the old explanation that a cat's eyes glow in the dark because they catch and concentrate every least glimmer of light that may be about, scientists recently to ascertain if there may not be some other explanation for the eyes' glow when there is no light at all. This is true of the eyes of many other animals than cats; in fact, it is true of most nocturnal creatures, including birds and insects.

The first man to point to what seems to be the true reason was Professor Bugnion of Switzerland, who in 1913 suggested that a cat's eyes perhaps have invisible rays—such as the ultra-violet or infra-red—were transformed by some chemical action into visible rays at the instant of reflection from the eyes.

Now come two Costa Rican professors, G. Michaud and J. F. Tristant, reporting their experiments upon the effect of ultra-violet rays on the eyes of men and animals. They filtered a ray of sunlight through a special filter composed of a cell of tinfoil glass containing a solution of copper sulphate and a film of nitrosodimethylamine, thus cutting off all the visible rays and allowing none but the invisible ultra-violet to enter a perfectly dark room. In the room these rays were allowed to fall upon the eyes of a dog or a man who had been in the dark for fifteen minutes. The pupils immediately became sharply defined in luminous green against the violet-black background of the iris.

This startling effect, they believe, is caused by the pigmented iris absorbing the ultra-violet rays while one of the tissues inside the eyeball, perhaps the purple of the retina, fluoresces when they enter.

The Factory Peril.

For a noncombatant to get within the firing line of the bloody European war is considered an impossibility. There is a reason—it is a dangerous place; one's life would be in jeopardy. Here in New York, are more than 1,000,000 persons, working every day in places almost as dangerous as the firing lines of Europe. They go and come with no thought of danger, merely because they have thus far escaped death and injury. Yet a tragedy might be enacted at any moment. Some time ago the cloak, suit and skirt industries of New York engaged Dr. George M. Price to inspect the fire hazards of the many buildings devoted to these manufacturing interests. Doctor Price has made his report, in which he says that, out of 328 buildings, 30 were found to be perfectly safe. It might require a mathematician to figure out how much better chance one of the employees of these structures has of escaping death than he would have on the firing line.—Insurance Press.

Little Pete's Defense.

At a meeting of the Canadian-American society in a Maine town one evening recently, two members of the organization fell to disputing which had the smarter children. Joe Belanger was proclaimed the victor when he came to the front with the following: "De nodder day my little boys Pete was go on de schoolhouse with hees little dog. De teacher gets mad wid de boy and tol' heem for go back on de house jes' so quick he can't and took de dog and never bring heem back som' more. Lettie Pete de jes' w'at de teachers is tol' it. Bimeby Lettie Pete is go back on de schoolhouse and jes' so soon he get hees head down, som' little dogs was com in and stan' up on front of Lettie Pete. "Lettie Pete is stan' up and say, 'Teachers, dis don't was de sam dog; let's nodder one. I get two of it.'"

Youth's Companion.

From a Few Ambitious Brains.

Of a surety a few men, perhaps not a score in all, have had the power to strip from millions their meed of life on this wind-swept earth! For myths conceived in a few ambitious brains the whole world must pay with grief and agony! What can we do, when this war is over, to insure that we shall not again be stampeded by professional soldiers, and those—in whatever country—who dream grand dreams of territory, trade and glory, caring nothing for the lives of the simple, knowing nothing of the beauty of the earth which is their heritage.—John Galesworthy, in Scribner's Magazine.

Appendicitis an Old Disease.

Generally regarded as a modern disease, appendicitis was known in Egypt 5,000 years ago and accurately described in still existing records.

Age of Elephants and Parrots. Earlley-Wilmet, in his "Life of an Elephant," says that these animals live one hundred years under favorable circumstances. R. Lydekker in his "Great and Small Game of India" says of the Indian elephant that its age depends upon its teeth.

Definite information as to the age of parrots is hard to find. In a work on "Parrots in Captivity" one black Madagascar specimen in the London zoo is mentioned, which was presented to the society full grown in 1881, and was still alive and well in 1884. Several others about twenty years old are mentioned.

On Barren Island

TYPE OF BARREN ISLAND HOMES

WELL named is Barren Island. Far removed is it from the haunts of civilized man, though included within the geographical confines of Greater New York. And for the most part barren are the 1,500 or 1,600 inhabitants of civic or national ideals, even of ambition to better their condition, to make their days and nights conform measurably to standards such as other folk enjoy who are adopted sons and daughters of Father Knickerbocker's great and growing family, says the New York Sun.

Anyone with the desire to visit foreign shores, and without traveling more than an hour or so from City Hall park, can descend into the subway near the municipal building, take a train for Coney Island, and at Canarsie landing step on board a steamer which leaves there at frequent intervals bound Barren Island. In an hour, more or less, the traveler will have arrived at his destination—at a land mass, as Arctic explorers put it, situated in a general direction south by east from the main borough of Brooklyn. Near by, toward the west, is Sheepshead Bay; to the east is Jamaica Bay, and not far off is the group of Rockaways. Thus it will be seen that Barren Island, while off the beaten track of travel, is by no means inaccessible. Yet when the traveler sets foot on shore there and takes one comprehensive glance around he will realize that in all the location he is in a foreign land.

The principal "center" of Barren Island is its one great industry—that of handling refuse of the big city of which it is a humble part. This central spot is marked by the work of the reduction company, upon the operation of which Barren Island and its inhabitants depend. "Barren" it is, this great garbage plant stretches the one main avenue—Broadway. It is called, possibly so named many years ago by someone who "knew" of its "barrenness." But this particular Broadway is bounded on one side by a "marsh," a "wood," a "representative cozy marsh," and along the other side are, indeed, the one-story homes of the employees of the garbage plant. In many of these little shacks it is said that two and sometimes three families exist. In a majority it is alleged that babies are taken. In fact, some of those who have been looking over social conditions at Barren Island seem inclined to think that entirely too many babies are taken in some of the tiny shacks that serve as dwellings.

Not many months ago, two or three of Commissioners Goldwater's staff journeyed down to Barren Island, made a careful survey of health conditions and came back home with a report that caused astonishment in the health department offices. They found a partial supply of good water on the island; but also found that a large proportion of the people were drinking water from surface wells. Furthermore, it was found that modern sanitary conveniences are practically unknown; that babies and ducks and cows and goats wallow side by side in the muck of "Broadway"; that while there is a school on the island there is no teacher, and that because of this the children may go to school not just as they choose. Also that large majority of them prefer to end their days in rummaging into mountain-high heaps of refuse, strong iron-forks and garner-

CALOMEL TODAY, SICK TOMORROW

Pose of nasty calomel makes you sick and you lose a day's work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with your bile it crumbles into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your drugist and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow, besides it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.—Adv.

Against Law to Be Patriotic

According to a recent ruling of Justice Gould of the district supreme court the law as it is now interpreted permits a theater manager to eject from his house of entertainment a patron who rises to his feet when the national anthem is played. The custom of rising when the national anthem is played is a matter of taste and not particularly of right. It is a most excellent practice, worthy of emulation. It should be universal. In the particular case in point a grave error of judgment was committed by the theater management in trying to put out the man who patriotically insisted upon standing. Those who churlishly called upon him to resume his seat should have been the objects of corrective attention.—From the Washington Star.

MANKIND UNFAIR TO HORSE

If Beasts of Burden Could Talk Inhumanity Might Well Be Subject of Indictment of Their Masters.

If horses could talk those of us who know them best have no doubt as to some of the things they would say. Man's inhumanity to them would be the chief subject of their conversation, at least if they are half as human as we think they are.

To require a locomotive to haul a train of cars over a track that wrecks it before half the days of usefulness should be over and then send it to the scrap heap, is an economic folly. To ask a horse to drag our heavy loads of coal, ice, iron, lumber—the merchandise of all sorts by which cities grow rich and great—over streets that wear it out even before it has reached its prime, is not only an economic folly, it is a cruelty that not only horses but all decent men must condemn.

There are streets where, no small part of the year, the pavement is so slippery that it is torture for a horse to travel on them. There are others so full of holes, so uneven, so wretchedly out of repair, that no self-respecting horse, left to himself, would ever set foot upon them.

To be jerked and pulled, now this way, now that, because the loaded wagon you are straining to drag to its destination sinks into a hollow here, or bangs into an elevation there, to go home at night with feet bruised and shoes torn off by pavements, with legs aching in every muscle because no clean level surface has been provided where the feet could get a grip—these are the things that horses, who of us would not start a union for self-protection, and strike before the week was over?

But horses do talk. Their language is not audible, it is visible. You see it in that swollen joint, that sprained tendon, that limping gait, which speak of the roads over which men have made them travel.

Money? No money to put our streets in order? We are robbing our taxpayers of their money by refusing to do it—saying at the apogee and wasting at the bung hole. We are doing more. We are treating with positive cruelty, every working day of the year, thousands of the most faithful servants of our cities, without whom we would have had no cities worthy the name.—Exchange.

Prices of Gems Soaring.

If anyone notices a broad and becoming smile on the fair countenances of their favorite actresses, there's a reason. It is because the prices of precious stones are soaring to the sky. Nearly every prominent stage favorite has acquired a bushel or so of diamonds, rubies, emeralds and other valuable stones. That is the reason they are happy. Under present conditions they are not required to go before the footlights and sing and dance or do whatever their specialty is. What's the use when they can attain wealth without effort? Diamonds are as valuable as "war babies." The war has sent the price of precious stones way up and dealers say they are still soaring. This is because very few stones are being imported. Then again there has been a hoard of ten to twenty per cent in the tariff on cut stones, and another thing, the diamond mines in South Africa are shut down. If you have promised your lady friend a diamond ring or a bauble with precious stones you may as well be prepared to see your bank roll fade away.

Namesless Inventors.

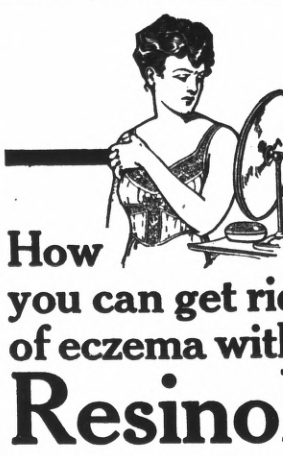

Apart from the sheer human wonder aroused by the wireless telephone, the most remarkable fact seems to be that this application of research has been carried out by a business corporation, and that the inventors and scientists remain anonymous. As evidence of human motives there is much to think about here. What is the incentive which impels these unknown workers, what secret have these corporations discovered which enables them to tap so inexpensively the most useful minds in America? When next we read that enterprise would collapse without dazzling rewards, that human nature is so and so, we shall not be able to refrain from thinking of these namesless benefactors of mankind. Their incentive seems somehow to be as good as those of the men who are piling up fortunes in war speculation, or of those who had grandfathered with a vision of real estate development.—New Hampshire.

His Precarious Condition.

"I overheard someone saying that your nephew, Emmett Uckles, is lying in a critical condition. What is the nature of his complaint?" "He isn't making any," replied Uncle Foggy. "It is his wife who is doing the complaining. You see, Emmett went to Kansas City not long ago to buy goods, and a few days after his return there came a dainty note signed 'Your Little Sunshine.' Women Once Invalids

Now in Good Health Through Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Say it is Household Necessity. Doctor Called it a Miracle.

All women ought to know the wonderful effects of taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound even on those who seem hopelessly ill. Here are three actual cases:

Harrisburg, Penn.—"When I was single I suffered a great deal from female weakness because my work compelled me to stand all day. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for that and was made stronger by its use. After I was married I took the Compound again for a female trouble and after three months I passed what the doctor called a growth. He said it was a miracle that it came away as one generally goes under the knife to have them removed. I never want to be without your Compound in the house."—Mrs. FRANK KNOB, 1642 Fulton St., Harrisburg, Penn.

Hardly Able to Move.

Albert Lea, Minn.—"For about a year I had sharp pains across my back and hips and was hardly able to move around the house. My head would ache and I was dizzy and had no appetite. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, I am feeling stronger than for years. I have a little boy eight months old and am doing my work all alone. I would not be without your remedies in the house as there are none like them."—Mrs. F. E. YOST, 611 Water St., Albert Lea, Minn.

Three Doctors Gave Her Up.

Pittsburg, Penn.—"My medicine has helped me wonderfully. When I was a girl 18 years old I was always sickly and delicate and suffered from irregularities. Three doctors gave me up and said I would go into consumption. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and with the third bottle began to feel better. I soon became regular and I got strong and shortly after I was married. Now I have two nice stout healthy children and am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. CLEMENTINA DUKERING, 34 Gardner St., Troy Hill, Pittsburg, Penn.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it will be confidential.

Richmond has been very liberal towards assistance of many of our worthy county officials to good far possible offices in other parts of this country. It is conceded that the assemblyman will be elected from Richmond this time and H. O. Watson of Terminal City, a relative of the late Admiral Watson of the United States Navy, is Richmond's son mentioned for the place by the regular republicans of San Francisco bay. Mr. Watson is interested in deep water projects of San Francisco bay and the Sacramento river.

"Uncle Sam" can make a man pay taxes; can make a man fight— for his country; can put an idle man in jail. "Uncle Sam" can do almost anything; but he cannot give a man work unless the man becomes a criminal. In this country without work and hence without anything to eat, a man seems to be between "the devil and the deep sea," unless in case of war, and then "its the devil to pay."

President Polk had the courage to declare war against the Mexicans. President Wilson has mustered up only enough courage to declare war on an alleged murderer, President Huerta, and later on alleged bandit Villa. If it took two years, commencing in 1846, to conquer 15,000,000 of people en masse, how long will it take, commencing in 1916, to conquer 15,000,000 of Mexicans one at a time.

There are four menaces of national significance. One first-class enemy battleship could sink our whole Pacific squadron, says Rear-Admiral Winslow. Japan could land and maintain 280,000 soldiers in California, says Major-General Finston. President Wilson will run again for the Presidency, so he says; and ex-Secretary of State Bryan says he will support the candidacy of the man he deserted and whose policies he repudiated.

The friends of Hon. E. B. Martinelli will force him into the contest for State Senator. The young republicans, dyed-in-the-wool regulars and even the progressive democrats will rally to Martinelli's support and will roll up for him an unprecedented majority. Martinelli will not arouse class hatred of class against class in the struggle for existence. He treats the workman or workingwoman with due respect and he will not shut down industries by his vote or create any clash between capital and labor. We all want Martinelli and it is Marin county's turn.

Governor Hiram Johnson recently has been mentioned for President, Vice President, U. S. Senator and on down to "Retired Citizen." California has one citizen worthy of mention anywhere and for any position. Even his enemies must admit that Johnson goes out of office at least "worthy of mention." But it would be the most unkindest cut of all, the very irony of fate, if his political and personal enemy, his depreciated-reactionary Secretary of State-Frank Jordan, succeeding to Governorship, should tread on the heels of Progressive Hiram W. Johnson going out, up or down.

Advertising Pays.

The common supposition that advertising is an expense is a fallacy. It is a bugaboo made of thin air and a yellow streak. The fact of the matter is, that the non-advertiser PAYS for it out of the business he loses to competitors who do advertise.
